

Remarks

Claim 21 and 32 have been amended to include the further limitation that the oxidizing in the primary oxidation zone is at a lower temperature than the oxidizing in the staged oxidation zone. Support for this limitation can be found in applicants' disclosure on page 13, lines 18-21.

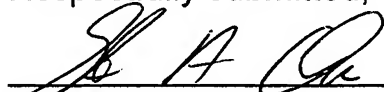

Conclusion

The application is in condition for allowance. The Examiner is respectfully requested to reconsider the rejection(s), remove all rejections, and pass the application to issuance.
